A series of local workshops will be held in each of the six counties. The purpose of the workshops is to educate the leaders and citizens on the benefits of cultural, ecotourism and heritage tourism and gain input and support for the “Our Creative Economy” project. The workshops will demonstrate the role cultural tourism (culturetour) can have in producing economic benefits in Florida’s urban and rural communities. The workshops will also explain the need to offer visitors who are unfamiliar with the area, a coordinated, easy-to-use method for identifying and finding local arts’ amenities and activities.
